AN AFTERWORD

hello everyone!
how are you?
i'm suenobu keiko...

Thank you for reading my work. I worked on this while also carving my final project. So, I was sculpting while making this. Thanks to my teachers, senpai and all of my friends who helped me. I used their names for characters in this book.

As I kept it a secret that I actually wrote manga, there had actually been rumors that I worked part time at home. But now it's only a nice memory. My sculpture was featured in KC Whimsy Magazine. Those who would like to see it, you can see in the advertisement. Many people said it was "scary". Maybe you guys will be curious and have a look at it (hehe...)

I WILL ALWAYS DO MY BEST TO WRITE BETTER STORIES

THANKS FOR THE SUPPORT!

A black and white manga-style illustration. A man in a dark suit is embracing a woman from behind. The woman is wearing a light-colored, pleated dress and high-heeled shoes. She has her head tilted back and eyes closed. The background is a cloudy sky.

It wasn't make-up or beautiful clothes...

An inset panel in the top right corner. It shows a close-up of a man's face with glasses, looking slightly to the side. Below him, a woman's face is visible, looking up at him with a surprised or concerned expression.

If there was something that

What did you give (that about the summer time)?

I would like to think you never having this little story was a lot to be honest. It was the last story I wanted to write with my old editor. I was really happy when I found out that they were going to publish a new one. It was a big surprise to me. I was a story that was not to come. And they'd always remember it.

Now for being done and ending with a new editor.

To my family, relatives, friends, teachers, editors, readers, publisher and you all. Thanks a lot.

I will keep doing my best.  I will keep supporting you.
